SOURCE:

Uniforms worn by EM and officers of the Mukachevo (N 48-26, E 22-43) militia were identical with the uniforms of the Soviet Army with certain exceptions (see page 2). All officers and EM in cities were armed with a pistol; I can not say what caliber and make. In the villages the militia were armed with small carbines, the specifications of which I also do not know.

Garrison Cap Insignia for Officers and EM of Militia Only the insignia replaced the red star in 1951. The circle in the center of the insignia was supposed to represent the world. The approx dimensions are 3 cm x 2 cm. It was gold-colored and the design stood out.
